

RELIGIOUS INFORMATION

CHAPLAINCY (FOR STUDENTS FROM ALL RELIGIONS AND FAITHS)

Chaplains* of a variety of faith groups are available to support students at the University of Melbourne. If your faith is not mentioned, you can contact the International Student Chaplain, who will put you in contact with representatives of your faith. The Chaplains are located at Level 1, 138 Cardigan St or Mezzanine 2 (3rd floor) Union House.

*A chaplain is a person of faith and compassion who works within the context of their religion to be a spiritual presence.

MUSLIM STUDENTS

Islamic Adviser position (currently vacant)

There are two prayer spaces at the University of Melbourne. There is a small space (for 4 or 5 people) on Level 1 of the Baillieu Library (Building 177) which is room number 212. There is also a larger facility being built on the corner of Pelham and Leicester St which will be ready for use soon. Until then, there is temporary facility on the corner of Bouverie St and Church St (the Pittman Books Building).

The nearest mosques are the Islamic Council of Victoria (ICV) and Carlton Mosque. Several food outlets in Union House sell Halal food, but for a list of all Halal restaurants, Islamic shops and mosques in Victoria, please contact the ICV or the UMMAH Directory.
