

Monday, 5 October 2009

1. Be a 2010 ALG Facilitator
2. Final SALP seminar
3. Uni Service opportunities
 - 3.1 International Student Services volunteers
 - 3.2 High Resolves volunteers
4. Sustainability - SPACE09
5. Sustainability Week 2010
6. BBQ the Blues Away
7. Eat.Drink.Play International Community Project
8. SIFE Nexus Abroad events
9. More current News, Events & Opportunities

1. Be a 2010 ALG Facilitator

Interested in taking your leadership skills to the next level? Then you should consider facilitating a new group of SALPers in 2010. You don't need to have polished skills, but it's a great way to develop them! Crucial to the success of SALP each year, ALG Facilitators need to be committed, reliable, enthusiastic, open to ideas and willing to learn. You will guide students to actively participate in ALG meetings; encourage discussion and be a sounding board for ideas.

You must be available for 2 semesters commencing Semester 1, 2010 and will be provided with on-going training and support. You must be available to attend:

- a 3-hour training workshop (Semester 1 O'Week)
- SALP Welcome Day (Saturday 17 April 2010)
- 5 scheduled ALG meetings throughout the 2010 program
- SALP Symposium (Tuesday 21 September 2010)
- other optional training

To apply, email zldauth@unimelb.edu.au with answers to the following (100 words or less):

1. What qualities & skills could you offer in this position?
2. How do you think you have demonstrated these skills and qualities this year in SALP?
3. What is one thing you learnt this year as part of your ALG experience that you might pass on to next year's Ambassadors?

Applications close Friday 23 October.

2. Final SALP seminar

A reminder that the final SALP seminar will be held this Tuesday/Wednesday.

Di Rachinger, General Manager - Student Engagement will facilitate this interactive session focusing on how to consolidate the skills you have developed as part of SALP and how to talk about your experiences and projects, when you graduate and beyond. The session will also be an opportunity to reflect on your SALP experience thus far and to provide us with feedback which we can incorporate into the planning for SALP 2010.

Tuesday 6 October - Gryphon Gallery, 1888 Building
Wednesday 7 October - Room 619, Doug McDonnell Building

Don't be late!

3. Uni Service opportunities

3.1 International Student Services volunteers

International Student Services (ISS) is recruiting student volunteers to assist new international students and their families coming to Melbourne for semester 1 2010. Volunteer during Orientation 2010 and help new international students adjust to life in Melbourne. It's a great way to engage with the diverse student population on campus and gain valuable cross-cultural and communication skills.

Interested? Register at http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/international/melbourne/volunteer_mentor.html

Nominate: Various ISS activities – International Student Services' on the SALP database

3.2 High Resolves volunteers

The High Resolves Initiative <http://www.highresolves.com/> is a not-for-profit, non-religious educational program seeking to motivate high school students to view themselves as purposeful global citizens and acquire the skills they need to lead their communities.

A key event for the High Resolves Initiative is the annual summit, which is attended by all participants from High Resolves schools as well as leading thinkers and national leaders.

When? Monday 23 November (8:30am- 3:40pm)

Where? Carillo Ganther Theatre, Sidney Myer Asia Centre

Volunteers are required to assist with registration, hosting, ushering and technical support.

A briefing session will be held Friday 13 November (1.30 – 3pm) at the Carillo Ganther Theatre, Sidney Myer Asia Centre

Interested? Email Gene Mulder on ge@highresolves.org

Nominate: 'SALP Various Activities - SALP' on the SALP database.

4. Sustainability - SPACE09

As their University based project, ALG 24 has started the Sustainability Collective and invites you to participate in SPACE09, a photography and art competition that aims to promote sustainability on campus.

Theme: Sustainability – Crisis or Opportunity?

When: Entries close 25 October

Prizes: $250 for Best Photograph

$250 for Best Artwork/Design (Exhibition of all submissions will be held during Sustainability Week 2010)

More info? Go to the Sustainability Collective website:

<http://www.sustainabilitycollective.org>

5. Sustainability Week 2010

The Sustainability Collective is seeking inspired and passionate individuals and groups to contribute to Sustainability Week, to be held in Week 4, Semester 1, 2010. Sustainability Week will showcase the interrelationship between the social, environmental and economic aspects of sustainability. As part of the Week, the group is organising a series of events, practical activities and lectures to promote sustainability on campus.

If you have a great idea that you would like to contribute, or a sustainable event that you think might fit in with the theme of sustainability, they would love to hear from you.

Interested? Visit www.sustainabilitycollective.org or email contact@sustainabilitycollective.org

6. BBQ the Blues Away

Free Sausage Sizzle, blue slurpees and information giveaway organised by ALG 21 as part of their University project aimed at raising awareness of mental health.

When: Friday 9 October (12- 2pm)

Where: North Court, Union House

7. Eat.Drink.Play International Community Project

eat.drink.play.for.good is a fundraising project for the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (RACS) international surgical aid program, with proceeds going to Larantuka, West Timor. Funds will provide specialist services where they desperately need it. In the short term, the target is to raise enough money to fund one service trip.

RACS is currently we are looking for enthusiastic helpers with ideas and energy to help develop and coordinate the project. If you have the skills to organise events, run the websites, or is who are just interested in being involved in a worthy cause, they would love to hear from YOU!

Interested? Email eatdrinkplay.fg@gmail.com

8. SIFE Nexus Abroad events

Nexus Abroad is a Students In Free Enterprise (SIFE) <http://www.unimelbsife.org.au/> project, that is hosting a series of activities and events to raise funds for an orphanage in Ghana called Nectar Home. Money raised will contribute towards travel expenses of 3 SIFE students travelling to Ghana in December to help the orphanage establish a sustainable income stream. Money raised will also be used to buy Christmas presents for the 20 orphans at Nectar Home!

Event 1 – Charity Film Night

Movie: Slumdog Millionaire

When: Wednesday 7 October (6:45pm)

Venue: Basement Theatre, The Spot

Donation: $10 per person (for finger food, lollies and drinks). Tickets collected at the door.

Event 2- Bake Sale

Menu: cupcakes (all types and flavours), banana bread and brownies

Date: Monday 12 October (12 – 2pm)

Location: South Lawn (or North Court if raining)

9. More current News, Events & Opportunities

Check the LIVE website regularly to stay updated on current opportunities and events: <http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/live/about/news.html>

The banner features a dark background with a stylized 'salp' logo in white and pink. To the left, an orange box contains contact details for the Student Leadership Programs Team. Below the logo, the tagline 'interact...initiate...inspire...' is written in pink and orange, followed by the website URL.

Student Leadership Programs Team
Rita Manassis
Ph: 8344 0384
Email: r.manassis@unimelb.edu.au
Zoe Dauth
Ph: 8344 4691
Email: zldauth@unimelb.edu.au

salp
interact...initiate...inspire...
<http://www.services.unimelb.edu.au/live/salp>