DESCRIPTIONS:

Seminar 7: Raising Funds for Projects

This seminar will help you develop a successful fundraising strategy for your project or event. You will learn the best way to ask for money using a range of mediums; how to get businesses to support your community projects and tips for writing successful grants.

Trainer: Our Community: www.ourcommunity.com.au

Seminar 8: ALG Progress Meeting

All ALGs are required to attend a Progress Meeting with the SALP Coordinator and their ALG Facilitators. The aims of the meeting are to discuss the progress of your project; identify challenges (within the team and/or the project) causing concern and discuss strategies to overcome these challenges.

Check email sent on 15 July for details about preparation for, and how to schedule your meeting time.

Seminar 9: Guest Speaker - Anna Rose (AYCC)

In November 2006, Ann Rose founded the Australian Youth Climate Coalition (AYCC), one of the most strategic and dynamic youth organisations in Australia. As Co-Director, she was responsible for bringing together a team of 100 young people to organise Power Shift 2009, Australia's first national youth climate summit (held in July).

Anna will talk about her experiences in environmental activism and the challenges and rewards of leading AYCC.

For more information about AYCC, go to: www.powershift.com.au

Guest Speaker - Glenn Manton

Former Carlton Football player Glenn Manton is an author, actor, media personality, motivational speaker and corporate facilitator. In 1999 he co-founded 'Whitelion', a not for profit organisation assisting youth in crisis within the juvenile justice system. He has an extraordinary knowledge of the world and a truly unexpected story to tell.

For more information about Glenn Manton, go to: <http://www.glennmanton.com.au/>

Seminar 10: Guest Speaker - Julian Burnside QC

Julian Burnside is a prominent Australian barrister, who has acted for the Ok Tedi natives against BHP and for the Maritime Union of Australia in the 1998 waterfront dispute against Patrick Stevedores. While specialising in commercial litigation, he has acted pro bono in many human rights cases, in particular concerning refugees.

Mr Burnside will share his insights about Australia's treatment of asylum seekers and human rights obligations.

Guest Speaker – James Murphy

James Murphy opened KereKere, at Melbourne University in early 2007. Named after the Fijian custom of giving without expectation of repayment, KereKere is a coffee outlet that lets customers decide how profits are distributed: to the owner, to environmental causes, to cultural causes or to social causes.

James will discuss the rewards of starting up an entrepreneurial business with a firm grounding in social justice.

For more information about KereKere, go to: www.kerekere.org

Seminar 11: Ethics & Leadership

This seminar will help you explore your personal values and the ethical dimensions of your day-to-day life.

By developing new ways to think about ethics, we can learn to respond intelligently rather than emotionally to ethical challenges and avoid the compromises of unethical practices that characterise many daily transactions.

Trainer: National Leadership Institute www.leadership-institute.com.au

Seminar 12: ALG meeting

Final scheduled meeting as part of SALP seminars.

Seminar 13: The Leadership Challenge

During this entertaining seminar you will explore the importance of developing an inspiring vision and why building strong relationships with your peers and staff, is essential to accomplishing goals.

Trainer: Success Integrated: www.successintegrated.com.au

Seminar 14: Wrap-up

During the final SALP seminar you will participate in a team activity designed to reflect on your SALP experience thus far. You will also be given the opportunity to reflect on the skills you have developed and how they can assist with your future endeavours.

Additional lunchtime sessions

The following sessions are offered in addition to the regular seminars scheduled during Weeks 3, 6 and 8. SALPers can attend these sessions only if they have arranged to attend the regular SALP seminar (refer to calendar above) for that week.

Fair Trade seminar (Week 3)

What is Fair-Trade and why is it so important? Susanna Bevilacqua, Director of Moral Fairground, will talk about how her organisation promotes Fair Trade and Ethical Business in Australia, and introduce you to the creative and challenging ways you can get involved in this initiative.

For more information about Moral Fairground go to: www.moralfairground.com.au

Date: Tuesday 11 August

Venue: Chemical & Biomolecular Engineering Theatre

Guest Speaker - Jacqueline Pascarl (Week 6)

Jacqueline Pascarl is an Australian author, TV personality, parents' rights advocate and humanitarian aid worker. She made international headlines in 1992 when her 2 children were kidnapped by their Malaysian prince father. She then became a noted international lobbyist on the rights of the child, and in 1998, was appointed Special Ambassador for CARE International and worked as an emergency aid worker in Bosnia, Kosovo and East Timor.

For more information about Jacqueline Pascarl, go to: www.jacquelinepascarl.com.au

Date: Tuesday 1 September

Venue: Public Lecture Theatre, Old Arts

High Resolves (Week 8)

The High Resolves Initiative (HRI) is a non-profit educational program that seeks to motivate high school students to view themselves as purposeful global citizens and to acquire the skills they will need to lead their communities, and the world, to a brighter future. This session will provide you with information about how to get involved.

For more information about High Resolves, go to: www.highresolves.org/home.html

Date: Tuesday 15 September

Venue: Public Lecture Theatre, Old Arts
